A STATEMENT recently appeared in a Strait paper to the effect that the recent experiment of employing a number of Chinese as policemen at Singapore had proved a failure. We believe this is not the case, but that, on the contrary, the experiment has resulted so far very satisfactorily; and strong proof of this is to be found in the fact that an application has been made to Hongkong for an additional contingent of Chinese to join the Police Force at Sings-

THE Warrant Officers, Staff Scrgeents and Sergeants of the lat Battalion A. & S. Highlanders gave a very successful dance at the City Hall last night. There was a large company, and among those present were Vice Admiral Sir F. W. Richards, Major General Digby Barker, Capt. Pec, of the Imperieuse, Col. Verner Chater and a number of other Naval and Military officers. The rooms were suitably decorated and all the arrangements were carried 5th. - All Comers. - Distance 300 yards. out in the most admirable manner. Dancing took place both in St George's and St Androw's Halls, and excellent music was supplied by the Band of the Regiment, The function was held in colebration of the -fight at Gingbolhovs, twelve years ago in which the Regiment were engaged. Of the nine hundred who were actually in the engagement only six now remain in the Regiment, namely, Major Tottecham, Sergt.-Major Williamson, Colour-Bergt. THE Singapore Free Press says :- We hear that a desire to shine at football has fired the spirits of some of the Chinese youths of the town, and that a match will take place at Hong Lim Green on Saturday next, There should be some fun as the players use their national shoes, slacks and touchangs.

A NEW FEATURE IN PROSPECTUSES. The promoters of the Quadruple Delivery Machine Company are making a bold attempt to nullify the provisions of the Directors' Liability Act. The customary waiver clause relating to contracts which may be within the meaning of Section 38 of the Companies Act, 1867, is now supplemented by one of almost subline audacity. Applicants for shares, says the prospectus, shall also be deemed absolutely to waive all rights to compensation under the Directors' Liability Act, 1890. That is to say, if there should happen to be in the prospectus any untrue statement, which the promoters or directors have not reas nable ground for believing to be true, shareholders who may subscribe on the strength of the misleading representation are to be 'absolutely barred the right to sue given by the Act of last year. . . If a waiver clause of this sweeping and comprehensive character is to hold good, then every shareholder will be shut out from any and every chance of pecuniary redress, no matter how false and misleading may have been the statements in the protue on the faith of which he applied for Sth .- All Comers Distance 500 yards. haros But it is extremely doubtful-if such a clause as we have quoted pussesses any validity at all.
